Also appearing will be special guest John Fries of the group Lo-Fi Radio Stars. $5 suggested donation; beer and wine available for purchase,

Join us for a great evening of music, entertainment and casual fun on the O'Neill's National Historic Trust registered Waterford campus. Cabin Fever will continue throughout the winter and spring with further dates to be announced. The O'Neill is located at 305 Great Neck Road, Waterford. For more information, call (860) 443-5378 x230.

The Eugene O'Neill Theater Center, founded in 1964 in honor of Eugene O'Neill, America's only Nobel Prize-winning playwright and four-time Pulitzer Prize winner, is America's preeminent organization dedicated to the development of new works and new voices for the American theater. It has been home to more than 1,000 new works for the stage and 2,500 emerging artists. Scores of projects developed at the O'Neill have gone on to full productions at other theaters around the world, including Broadway, off-Broadway and major regional theaters. In addition to NPC and NMTC, O'Neill programs include: National Puppetry Conference, National Cabaret & Performance Conference, National Critics Institute, and National Theater Institute, which conducts semester-long, fully accredited intensive theater training programs and Theatermakers, six-week accredited summer program. In addition, the O'Neill owns and operates as a museum the Monte Cristo Cottage, a National Historic Landmark and the childhood home of Eugene O'Neill. The O'Neill has received a Tony Award, the National Opera Award, the Jujamcyn Award for Theatre Excellence and the Arts and Business Council Encore Award.
